

In the interest of free enterprize as well as my own delight at having the option of subscribing to XM radio I oppose HR 4026. If there are interests that oppose XM radio, they need to look at how they can compete, not kill the competition through political maneuvers.

connie schenk